

Friends of WASA Night Report

May 6, 2016

Willcox Community Center

As previously decided by the Board, this event was held in place of the regular monthly May meeting, but no business requiring Board approval was conducted. Meeting attended by WASA Board Members: Kathryn Ford-Maddox, Roxy Roffey, Sam Lindsey, Tim Bowlby, Liz Tenney, John Cropper, LaDonna Burgess and Sally White, along with Mayor Bob Irwin and City Councilman Mike Laws, the WASA Scholarship recipients and summer employees and their guests – total of 28.

Meeting was conducted by Kathryn Ford-Maddox and Sally White starting at 7:05PM.

Scholarship Recipients Laree Crockett and Airam Madrigal received certificates and gave brief statements of appreciation and detailed how they will be spending the $500 award (Laree's will go toward her airfare to attend North Carolina University; Airam will use hers for summer class tuition that she is taking at EAC prior to going to UofA).

Summer employees April Gonzales and Adrianna Valencia were introduced.

Mayor Irwin accepted the Best Friend of WASA award on behalf of the City of Willcox.

Sally reviewed with those present on-going WASA programs as well as plans for the upcoming summer program.

Desserts were served and the meeting dismissed at 7:50 pm.
